States that if no copies of Central Reports are to be supplied to the Durbar, arrangements may be made for getting the copies separately.
We have already made arrangements with the Residency for the supply of 12 copies each of the Imperial & Provincial Reports to the Durbar (vide Pol: no 1123 dy 29th June 1911), so no separate arrangements are necessary.
4 May we ask the Residency as to how many copies of our Reports they require for distribution to the Imperial & other Provincial Govts & also for the Native States
